Coach's Corner – We are back on Monday!

Good afternoon friends and families of MCS,

We are back Monday! We are thrilled to welcome our students back into our classrooms growing and learning together. Our teachers and I sincerely miss the daily interactions of connecting with students in person. It's one of the best parts of being an educator.

1

As we approach Monday it is important for all of us to stay the course and continue to follow public health recommendations. As I've said before, MCS is in a unique situation as a small community. Keeping our social circles limited to our own households as much as possible will continue to keep the risk of a potential spread of COVID-19 at the school low. We are all in this together and there is light at the end of the tunnel.

I am so excited to see the children next week. Even if I must wave from a distance!

Blessings,

Mr. Martin

Joys of New Years

People gather 'round full of immense joy,
you look around to see smiles full of glee.
The anticipation is real, oh boy.
People hand in hand oh so happily.

Hanging with family and friends is best,
entertainment brought to all, what a blast!
It doesn't seem like anybody's going to rest.
People celebrating, but not so fast.

The clock is ticking, it's almost time now.
"Hey, hey, hey" they yell, better not miss it.
Illuminating lights make you say "wow!"
Everything is beautifully lit!

10, 9, 8, 7, 6, 5, 4, 3, 2...
Then comes 1, congratulations to you!

Ode to Soccer

Oh soccer
You are a wonderful sport
With lots of support
Even when the referee calls a report
Oh soccer
Running with the ball makes me feel free
Scoring a goal now it's 3
With a happy cheer
Oh soccer
The team has won
The war is done
And I had a lot of fun
Oh soccer
We go to our room's
We high five each other
Then the next day it resumes
Oh soccer
I love you

A Donut Craving

I wish for something great like a donut
It has to fill me with pleasure and joy
Something detestable won't make the cut
A tasty treat I would truly enjoy

There are many donut flavours to try
Vanilla dip, fritters and Boston Cream
They are very delicious I might cry
Scrumptious, sweet donuts like these are my dream

The smell of these pastries are heavenly
Their warm, sugary fragrance is pleasant
This treat was certainly made specially
It could even be a Christmas present

When I eat donuts I am ecstatic
The feeling I get is quite dramatic

Ode to Cake

Oh, Delicious Cake!
How you fill me with delight.
When you enter my mouth, it feels just right.

Oh, Lovely Cake!
I can never get enough of your addicting taste.
Not even a crumb will go to waste.

Oh, Perfect Cake!
You look so good in the store.
You leave me wanting more and more.

Oh, Beautiful Cake!
You are the perfect treat,
that I am ready to eat.

More poems coming next week!!! Stay tuned.

EVENT UPDATE: Our first Virtual Kindergarten Open house took place on January 28th. We “met” nine potential new families via Zoom. It was an interesting evening hosted by Mr. Martin, Ms. Killam, Ms. Magat, and Mrs. O. We are accepting JK/SK registration for the 2021-2022 session. Please spread the good word about MCS.

Thank you for reading the Connector!
