Coach's Corner – We remember

Today marks an important time where we pause to honour the armed forces members who have lost their lives in the line of duty. In Romans 12 we find the apostle Paul providing guidance on showing love in action. In verse 15 we read “rejoice with those who rejoice, mourn with those who mourn.”

On Remembrance Day, we can show our love by grieving together for the lives lost in armed conflicts. We can pause to mourn with those who mourn, honouring those who never returned home.

At MCS, our Grade 7 students have prepared a chapel service and students across the school have engaged in conversations, stories and art projects to reflect on the significance of this day.

We remember.

*Blessings,
Mr. Martin*
