Coach's Corner – Halfway to 70!

Good afternoon friends and families of MCS,

I turned 35 years old today! Although logic tells me that it is just another number, I can't help but feel I've passed some kind of imaginary threshold as I am now halfway to 70! I find myself reflecting on a lot today.

As many of you know, I spent much of my early years pursuing a career in hockey. Although I came close to my goal of playing in the National Hockey League, God had other more amazing plans for me. I am blessed with an amazing wife and three young boys that mean the world to me. I've also been blessed to serve at MCS as both a teacher and now principal. These last nine years at the school have meant so much to me. I've seen the staff, students, school and myself grow in amazing ways. Teachers and staff, thank you so much for making this day special at the school for me. You are an amazing group that I feel privileged to work with.

While doing my own private morning devotion, I wanted to find something about God having a plan for your life. I was drawn to Jeremiah 29:11

"For I know the plans I have for you," declares the LORD, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future."

*Blessings,
Mr. Martin*
