Coach's Corner – Embrace the season!

As I ponder what to write about this week, only one thing came to mind. That was how busy life seems to be. Mrs. Gillham mentioned this week during chapel to the students that this time in their lives is likely the least busy they will ever be. So much truth in that statement!

Whether it be the stress of your job, household chores or after-school activities with your children, adulthood/parenting is exhausting. You get the kids ready for school, go to work, take the kids to after-school activities, make dinner, put the kids to bed, and then maybe you have 1-2 hours to yourself in the evening. Then repeat. Sound familiar?

The Bible says this:

Ecclesiastes 3:1

For everything there is a season, a time for every activity under heaven.

I once jokingly posted on Facebook how busy/messy our house was because of my kids. An old friend whose children were adults commented that I should embrace and enjoy these moments, as when my boys have started families of their own, I will miss these busy days.

It's hard to think how I will miss these busy days, but my friend is right. Keep doing the amazing work you are doing raising your children. It is difficult but you are not alone on the journey.

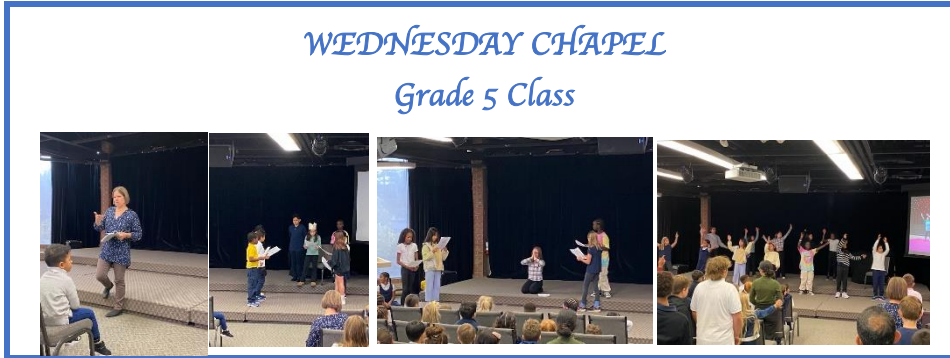

Blessings,

Mr. Martin
